BG & YOU

Welcome to the second edition of BG & You, your guide to what's happening at Bishop Grosseteste University College Lincoln.

There's always so much going on at BG which you might just want to be a part of.

So we've put together this guide to help highlight events you may like to attend here at BG, along with letting you know about all our new developments and changes on campus.

We also wanted to give you a little information about what we do and what we're planning, to help you get to know us a little better.

Hopefully you'll find this guide useful and informative.

Don't forget to keep an eye out for the next edition in May 2012!

It's our 150th birthday!

Our 150th anniversary celebrations are now in full swing, with the highlight of our sesquicentennial year taking place in Lincoln Cathedral in February (see page 11 for details).

To mark the contribution BG has made to the teaching profession we are creating a map to show as many schools as possible who have benefitted from BG trained teachers. To complete the map, we need your help - just let us know the names, and if possible the street address of the schools where you have taught since leaving BG and we'll create a pin on our interactive map! Please send details to: alumni@bishopp.ac.uk

Is your son or daughter applying for university this year? Come along to our Higher Education Session for Parents in February.

More details on page 10 >>

Our celebration of 150 Years of BG takes place on 16 February in Lincoln Cathedral.

"L'illusioniste"

Jacques Tati was one of cinema's greats - 'The Illusionist' is the perfect tribute to the man. Based on an unrealised script of Tati's, Sylvain Chomet has created a masterly film that will make audiences laugh and cry (possibly at the same time). Aside from the uncanny characterisation and wonderful gags, the artwork in this film is utterly magnificent. Cinema as art indeed...

"Animal Kingdom"

Jacki Weaver creates one of film's great monsters with her portrayal of the matriarch at the head of a family of criminals. Part Vi Kray, part Peggy Mitchell, she is as dangerous as any of her violent sons and 17 year old grandson Josh, whom she's looking after, has to have all his wits about him as he struggles to survive. Neighbours this most certainly is not...

“Potiche”

The 1970s is often remembered - fondly or otherwise - for great pop music and awful dress sense. It was also a time when issues like sexual equality were no big deal. Francois Ozon's latest film comedy scores some well directed hits on this and other prejudices of the time. Enjoy this nostalgic trip to a land that time should have forgotten in the company of some of France's greatest acting talent

"The Happiest Girl in the World"

Chairman's Choice

Since the end of communism, Romanian cinema has taken many a critical look at aspects of life under and since the Ceausescu regime. This film is a bone dry satire on the new consumerism sweeping the country and neatly skewers many of the so-called advantages of the free market, including advertising and being a media star. Well worth a look!

Starring: Andreea Bosneag, Vasile Muraru, Nioleta Haret

Lincoln Theological Society Lecture: Jesus and Genesis: Tales of Two Brothers

Lincoln Theological Society (LTS) starts its second season of lectures on Wednesday 14 March with a lecture by Trevor Dennis, entitled Jesus and Genesis: tales of two brothers. Jesus' parable of the two brothers, usually called The Prodigal Son, is full of references to the Genesis stories of Jacob and Esau, and Joseph and his brothers. His handling of these tales and especially his parables extraordinary punchline, raise very radical questions about any notions of the People of God. Trevor Dennis is a Hebrew Scholar who uses the original text for his work and arrives at some totally unfamiliar conclusions. LTS hold 3 lectures a year and are not attached to any religious denomination or organisation. Their aim is to hear respected and published theologians thinking aloud.

The society meets in The Robert Hardy Lecture Theatre at BG at 7.00 for 7.30pm. Tickets available from Lincoln Cathedral shop, Unicorn Books in Lincoln Market, or on the door at a cost of £5.00 (which includes a glass of wine).

"The Last Picture Show"

This season's classic takes us back to 1950s small town America. The TV revolution has arrived and the town's last cinema is about to close. The film explores the impact this has on the lives of those in the community, especially the young people. Widely regarded as one of Bogdanovich's finest films and launched the careers of Jeff Bridges and Cybill Shepherd.

New Youth Theatre

The popular pint-sized, pin-striped classic leaps off the silver screen and onto the Bishop Greaves stage. With a catchy, swinging score by the composer of The Muppet Movie, New Youth Theatre's Production of Bugsy Malone includes an all singing, all dancing, vibrant, enthusiastic cast set to get those feet tappin'.

"Puzzle"

This film is something of an oddity - after all, what could possibly appeal about a woman interested in jigsaw puzzles? - but it works. Natalia Smirnoff's story of Maria, a put upon housewife who discovers her sense of self through her aptitude for doing jigsaws, is a delightful character study, with a terrific central performance from its star.

LIBRARY EXTENSION AND REFURBISHMENT UNDER WAY

In February 2011, the Sibthorp Library at Bishop Grosseteste University College Lincoln celebrated its 125th birthday. To prepare the library for another century of use, a £2.5m extension and refurbishment project began in August 2011 with a view to creating a state-of-the-art resource at the heart of the BG campus.

The design for the library building project proposes a space which will be inviting, accessible, comfortable, flexible and future-proof. The designs include a large flexible study room for group work, several seminar rooms, a silent study space incorporating four individual silent study booths, a 24 hour access IT Suite, and lots of study spaces in and around the book shelves. It is the intention to also include a purpose-built facility for BG's extensive Children's Collection of children's books and classroom resources, in the style of a school library, and a specific room in which to house a comprehensive Lincolnshire Collection of local history books.

“OUR PLANS FOR THE LIBRARY MAKE A BOLD STATEMENT OF OUR COMMITMENT TO OUR STUDENTS. IT HAS THE POTENTIAL TO OFFER STATE OF THE ART FACILITIES IN WHAT WE HOPE WILL BE A BUILDING FILLED WITH CHARACTER, COMFORT AND FLEXIBILITY. ULTIMATELY, WE ENVISAGE A BUILDING THAT WILL BE REMEMBERED, ADMIRED AND WILL STAND AS A FITTING TRIBUTE TO ALL OF THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE HELPED KEEP THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ALIVE FOR SO LONG, INCLUDING ITS OVER 17,000 GRADUATES.”
